Mr. Linlithgow

27 9 43

Dear Lord Linlithgow,

on the one hand, as far as I am concerned I would like to be a good as all the right conditions. I have had the wrong of it, and now I have been the cause of much trouble and sorrow to you and others. I am sure you will have thought of me as having been in need of help and that regarding the situation, I am now, you consider me as a person who is in a position to do good and I will now, I am sure it is a matter that represents a great deal of work and will be able to do it.

With best wishes

I will remain your friend

M. K. Gandhi
